SAINT OF THE WEEK

Canadian Martyrs

St. John de Brébeuf, one of 7 Canadian martyrs, was born in France and joined the Jesuits in 1622. 3 years later he volunteered for the missions in Quebec. For many decades he labored among the Huron people. He converted 7000 and composed a dictionary and catechism in the Huron language. In 1649, he was captured by the Iroquois, enemies of the Huron. St. John and his companions were martyred at Sault Ste. Marie.

St. John de Brébeuf, St. Isaac Jogues and companions, pray for us!

The First Shall Be Last

“Whoever wants to be first must be last of all and servant of all.”

MARK 9: 35

Mark paints a vivid picture in today’s Gospel. Having arrived at Capernaum, Jesus and his disciples enter a house. In this private place, Jesus asks his disciples about the argument they had while they were journeying. The disciples are uncharacteristically silent and afraid to answer. They have been found out. Jesus then summons the Twelve, whom Mark identifies earlier in his Gospel as those chosen by Jesus to preach and to drive out demons. To this select group of disciples, Jesus teaches that those who would be first in God’s kingdom must be servants of all.

Jesus then calls forward a child and teaches the Twelve that to receive a child in Jesus’ name is to receive both Jesus and the One who sent him. We might easily fail to understand the significance of this action. In first-century Palestine, children were without status or power, possessing no legal rights. In this action, Jesus is teaching his disciples and us that when we serve the least ones among us, we serve Jesus himself. Who are the people without power or status in our society that Jesus is calling us to serve? Do we do so willingly? Jesus teaches that God’s judgement of us will be based on this criterion alone. (From the Sunday Connection by Loyola Press)
