*BaptismsCongratulations to the families of:Genessa Cecikinia Cruz GamaoGabriella Ann ComarinKiana Alexis AmaraAva Lucia FariasWelcome into our family of faith!SAINT OF THE WEEKSts. Cyril & Methodius

Sts. Cyril and Methodius were two brothers who were Byzantine Christian theologians and missionaries. Through their work they influenced the cultural development of all Slavs, thus they are called the "Apostles to the Slavs". They devised the Glagolitic alphabet, the first alphabet used to transcribe Old Church Slavonic. They translated the Bible into Old Church Slavonic and also introduced it in the liturgy. Pope John Paul II declared them co-patron saints of Europe.

OUR LADY'S SATURDAY

Devotion to Our Lady received a great impulse in the beginning of the tenth century with the monastic reform led by Cluny, the Order that built medieval civilization. It was then that the habit of dedicating Saturday especially to her became widespread.

Saturday is the day when creation was completed; therefore it is also celebrated as the day of the fulfillment of the plan of salvation, which found its realization through Mary. Sunday is the Lord's Day, so it seemed appropriate to observe the preceding day as Mary's day. The Gospels tell us that after the death of Our Lord Jesus Christ the Apostles, disciples and holy women did not believe in the Resurrection even though Our Lord had often announced it to them. Thus, from the time Our Lord died on the Cross on Good Friday until Resurrection Sunday only Our Lady believed in His divinity. Therefore she alone had perfect faith, for as Saint Paul says, "Without the Resurrection our Faith would be vain." Therefore, that Saturday only Our Lady personified the Catholic Church throughout the Earth and medieval men praised her especially on that day.

In the messages of Fatima, Mary drew attention to the custom of devoting Saturdays to her and praying the rosary in reparation. These messages were accompanied by an appeal and a promise – an appeal for prayer and reparation by the people for their transgressions against the divine law; a promise of peace and love in this life and eternal happiness in the next on the twofold condition of prayer and amendment. This practice refreshed the custom known as the Rosary Saturdays, popular since the seventeenth century and continued to the present at places of pilgrimage. Both Pope Pius IX and Pope Leo XIII fostered this custom. St. Louis-Marie Grignon de Montfort also fostered the rosary in connection with his missions, which often encompassed Saturdays. ~ Sources: Plinio Corrêa de Oliveira | mariancatechist.com | udayton.edu
