Spiritual Bouquet for Seminarians

We have been blessed with 4 seminarians from our parish as well as 2 interns. Please join the CWL in honouring this blessed occasion by offering your prayers. Pledge forms are available at both entrances of the church.

SAINT OF THE WEEKSt. Monica

St. Monica, through the power of prayer and patience, converted her abusive husband and mother-in-law to the Catholic faith. She also prayed for 17 years for her son, St. Augustine, to be converted and change from his life of sin.

Prayer for a Child to Return to the Faith

St. Monica, I need your prayers. You know exactly how I'm feeling because you once felt it yourself. I'm hurting, hopeless, and in despair. I desperately want my child to return to Christ in his Church but I can't do it alone. I need God's help. Please join me in begging the Lord's powerful grace to flow into my child's life. Ask the Lord Jesus to soften his heart, prepare a path for his conversion, and activate the Holy Spirit in his life. Amen.

HOW CAN I LIVE THIS WAY

This Sunday we hear some of the most difficult teachings of our Lord, and as Catholics in an age of disbelief and challenge we need to understand more profoundly what we believe. In the creed Jesus teaches us how to be faithful to God. He also teaches us a wisdom tradition and we must be careful here and not think that Jesus teaches us only human wisdom.

Divine teaching reveals to us the best of human wisdom. The danger with thinking of the teachings of Jesus as simply human wisdom is that people can begin to discard his teachings, thinking that we have better wisdom today because we live in a different age, we have a deeper understanding of human psychology, we are more aware of the diversity of the human family and for lots of other reasons.

Today's gospel tells us about two difficult but important teachings: forgiveness and acceptance of mistreatment. These teachings are so against our modern ways of thinking! Yet these same teachings would revolutionize our present world if we all lived them. The challenge is not to think to ourselves: "Nobody lives that way." Rather, we can be thinking: "How can I live this way because Jesus has invited me to live this way."

Let us pray today that our hearts might truly be open to forgiveness. Let us love the enemies of ourselves, our country, our Church and our society. Let us love the outcasts, the lepers of our times: anyone that we would not want to live with on a regular basis! Let us learn to do good for all of these enemies. Let us bless them and pray for them. What a world we can create together if we walk this path with our Lord Jesus Christ! Let us remember this phrase from today's Gospel: "For the measure with which you measure will in return be measured out to you." - <https://christdesert.org/2007/02/homily-for-7th-sunday-of-ordinary-time-2007-cycle-c/>
