SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Marie de L'Incarnation

Jesus Marie Guyart, born in 1599 in Tours, France, was the first woman missionary to North America. At age 27 she entered the novitiate of the Ursuline order, taking vows as Sister Marie de l'Incarnation in 1633. She became absorbed with missionary zeal for the New World and set out for Quebec in 1639. Her skills in business were a great asset in her ability to start a school for Native American girls — the first educational institution for women in North America. She was responsible for building the first monastery on the continent, serving as superior and novice mistress for the growing order.

--- VOCATIONS ---

Thomas believed because he saw Jesus. What will it take for you to respond to God's Call to priesthood or consecrated life? If you think God is calling you to a religious vocation, contact Fr. Chris Lemieux at 416-968-0997, vocations@archtoronto.0org

The Power of Forgiveness

The Spirit of Jesus Christ is the power of forgiveness. He is the power of Divine Mercy. He makes it possible to start all over again - ever anew. The friendship of Jesus Christ is the friendship of the One who makes us people who forgive, the One who also forgives us, raises us ceaselessly from our weakness and in this very way educates us, instills in us an awareness of the inner duty of love, of the duty to respond with our faithfulness to his trust.

In the Gospel passage for today we also heard the story of the Apostle Thomas' encounter with the Risen Lord: the Apostle is permitted to touch his wounds and thereby recognizes him — over and above the human identity of Jesus of Nazareth, Thomas recognizes him in his true and deepest identity: "My Lord and my God!" (Jn 20:28). The Lord took his wounds with him to eternity. He is a wounded God; he let himself be injured through his love for us. His wounds are a sign for us that he understands and allows himself to be wounded out of love for us.

These wounds of his: how tangible they are to us in the history of our time! Indeed, time and again he allows himself to be wounded for our sake. What certainty of his mercy, what consolation do his wounds mean for us! And what security they give us regarding his identity: "My Lord and my God!". And what a duty they are for us, the duty to allow ourselves in turn to be wounded for him!

God's mercy accompanies us daily. To be able to perceive his mercy it suffices to have a heart that is alert. We are excessively inclined to notice only the daily effort that has been imposed upon us as children of Adam. If, however, we open our hearts, then as well as immersing ourselves in them we can be constantly aware of how good God is to us; how he thinks of us precisely in little things, thus helping us to achieve important ones.

~ Pope Benedict XVI, April 15, 2007

SHARELIFE 2019 CAMPAIGN

Living the Gospel by welcoming newcomers

Rashida endured years of domestic abuse while living in Egypt. Fearing her husband would abuse their children, she successfully applied for refugee status in Canada. Rashida arrived in Toronto, not knowing the language, what to do, or who could help. Fortunately, she met an Arabic speaker who told her about Catholic Crosscultural Services (CCS). CCS helped her navigate the immigration process and access the resources she needed.

“Today I have money of my own, an apartment, and my children are finally safe and happy.”
