St. Justin Martyr, converted to Christianity after years of studying various pagan philosophies as he found that the Christian religion answered the great questions about life and existence better than the philosophers. He was a great apologist, one who defends in writing the Christian religion against the attacks and misunderstandings of the pagans. For his staunch adherence to the Christian religion, Justin was beheaded in Rome in 165.

MAY ROSARY

This month of May, dedicated to Mary, is a perfect time to pray the Rosary as a family. Try starting with just a decade and invite everyone to offer up their own intention!

Our Lady of Fatima, pray for us!

CHRIST AS THE MISSIONARY OF THE FATHER

The New Testament presents Christ as the missionary of the Father. Especially in the Gospel of John, Jesus often speaks of himself in relation to the Father who sent him into the world. And so in today's Gospel he says: "the word which you hear is not mine but the Father's who sent me" (Jn 14:24).

At this moment, dear friends, we are invited to turn our gaze to him, for the Church's mission exists only as a prolongation of Christ's mission: "As the Father has sent me, even so I send you" (Jn 20:21). The evangelist stresses, in striking language, that the passing on of this commission takes place in the Holy Spirit: "he breathed on them and said to them: 'Receive the Holy Spirit'" (Jn 20:22). Christ's mission is accomplished in love. He has kindled in the world the fire of God's love (see Lk 12:49). It is Love that gives life: and so the Church has been sent forth to spread Christ's Love throughout the world, so that individuals and peoples "may have life, and have it abundantly" (Jn 10:10). To you, who represent the Church in Latin America, today I symbolically entrust my Encyclical Deus Caritas Est, in which I sought to point out to everyone the essence of the Christian message.

The Church considers herself the disciple and missionary of this Love: missionary only insofar as she is a disciple, capable of being attracted constantly and with renewed wonder by the God who has loved us and who loves us first (see 1 Jn 4:10).

The Church does not engage in proselytism. Instead, she grows by "attraction": just as Christ "draws all to himself" by the power of his love, culminating in the sacrifice of the Cross, so the Church fulfills her mission to the extent that, in union with Christ, she accomplishes every one of her works in spiritual and practical imitation of the love of her Lord.

~ Pope Benedict XVI, 13 May 2007

ANNOUNCEMENTSCORPUS CHRISTI PROCESSION

Our Eucharistic procession along our neighborhood route will take place on Sunday, June 23rd followed by exposition of the Blessed Sacrament. A reception will be held afterwards in the parish hall where you can extend your best wishes to Fr. Marc as he heads to St. Isaac Jogues parish. More details will follow.

SHARELIFE 2019 CAMPAIGN

Living The Gospel By Supporting Isolated Seniors

In the span of three months, Debbie felt she had lost everything. Her partner of 33 years died, her leg was amputated, and she could no longer care for her beloved pets. She turned to the Society of Sharing, a ShareLife funded agency, who partnered her with a volunteer named Geof. Not only did Geof provide friendship, he used his teaching background to help Debbie fulfill a lifelong goal: learning how to properly read. Though it will be impossible for Debbie to regain all she has lost, her life is feeling full again. June 2 is the next ShareLife Sunday. Please give generously!

WATCH THE LEGENDS OF ROBIN HOOD Series

Robert of Locksley had no intention of becoming an outlaw. But the relentless cruelty and tyranny by the elite nobility of England demanded that someone rise up to give answer. So he became Robin Hood — a man thrown into a fierce struggle to balance his deep faith with a call to action in a violent age.
