SAINT OF THE WEEK

Uganda Martyrs

St. Charles Lwanga & Companions

Charles took over leadership of the Christian community in Uganda after missionaries were expelled. King Mwangi hated Christians and condemned them to death. Charles protected the young page boys of the king's court from his inappropriate advances and baptized many. Charles and 21 others were burnt to death for the faith and for protecting the boys. The men and boys, some as young as 13, rejoiced on the way to their deaths, looking forward to Heaven. Martyrs of Uganda, pray for us!

The Ascension and The First Novena

The heart of any Novena is the same as the first one, called by our Lord Himself just before his Ascension. He gives the Apostles the Great Commission: "He commanded them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for the Promise of the Father." "After that they returned to Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet near Jerusalem –a mere Sabbath's journey away. Together they devoted themselves to constant prayer" (Acts 1:12, 14).

What if they had given up and left? The persistence of the Christ's followers and His mother to wait for the promise ended in fulfillment. Nine days later, the Holy Spirit descended upon the Apostles at Pentecost when tongues of fire appeared of each of their heads declaring the coming of the Holy Spirit. So the novena in honor of the Holy Spirit is the oldest of all novenas since it was first made at the direction of Our Lord Himself on the first Pentecost. It is still the only novena officially prescribed by the Church. Addressed to the Third Person of the Blessed Trinity, it is a powerful plea for the light and strength and love so sorely needed by every Christian.

Nine day vigils were noted in Church history from the third century onward. By the middle ages novenas for the Pope and Cardinals were commonplace. Still today, whenever we undertake a novena of prayer, we are declaring that same supreme desire to wait for the promise, persevering with confidence until the end. Either as a public or personal observance, a novena involves nine days of hopeful anticipation of an answer for the petition or intention for which prayers are being offered.

A novena is a wonderful witness to a belief in the power of prayer and the dynamic role of genuine faith.

wellness. Last year, over 3,200 people accessed individual, couple and family counselling at Catholic Family Services of Peel-Dufferin, a ShareLife-funded agency.
