Pentecost

The Feast of Pentecost, whose name means the 'fiftieth day', is the last day and concluding feast of Eastertide. The entire season of Easter, or Paschaltide, is a single celebration of fifty days, being the high point of the entire Church's year.

As we celebrated the resurrection of Christ our Lord on Easter Day, so now we celebrate the outpouring of the fruits of that glorious victory over sin and death upon all Our Lord's disciples.

The beautiful sequence, which is a poetical extension of the second Alleluia verse, is a meditative prayer on the gifts of the Holy Spirit. Unlike most of the Mass texts, which date back to the early centuries, the sequence comes from the Middle Ages, and is ascribed to the English Cardinal and Archbishop, Stephen Langton.

~ Fr. Paul Dobson

Companions in Shipwreck

In the era of cancel culture and shunning of our neighbors, we should look back at how friendship should be integrated into our lives. It may be as simple as getting to know someone, or going further and visiting them regularly.

What can we learn of the true principles of friendship? Who can we learn it from? Look no further than the life of famed author and Catholic, J.R.R. Tolkien. The relationships he exhibited are a wonderful example for all of us to follow, especially with those we may disagree with. As Tolkien described marriage, it's all about being "companions in shipwreck."

LISTEN

Man of the Beatitudes

He was beatified on May 20, 1990 by Pope St. John Paul II who referred to him as a "man of the beatitudes". 51min
