4TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

For many centuries the Church has celebrated devotions to Our Blessed Lady during the month of May.

Many recall the prayers written in Mary's praise such as the Memorare and the Litany of Loreto. But why is Mary 'Queen of the May'?

In his 'Meditations and Devotions' Cardinal Newman reflects that no other month could in his case be more worthy; nature has clothed herself in verdant display and spangled herself with flowers. It is also joyous Eastertide when Mary received consolation after her sorrows and we await the promise of summer, just as Mary was the dawning of God's promise of salvation. ~ Fr. Paul Dobson

Find out why we stand, sit and kneel; say the responses we say, and make the signs we make? And why we enter and exit the assembly as we do. Knowing the roots of our timeless worship will deepen our faith, increase our awe, and see how our participation connects us across centuries and continents to the great cloud of witnesses.
