PAPAL PRAYER INTENTIONS

JULY - The Pastoral Care of The Sick

We pray that the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick confer to those who receive it and their loved ones the power of the Lord and become ever more a visible sign of compassion and hope for all.

AUGUST - For Political Leaders

We pray that political leaders be at the service of their own people, working for integral human development and for the common good, especially caring for the poor and those who have lost their jobs.

CANADA DAY

July 1 is celebrated as Canada's birthday. Canadians should seek to be witnesses to Christ in Canada and the world, and to continue working to influence those in government to act from Christian principles and attitudes. Christians, realizing they do not have a lasting home here, should pray and work for justice and peace in Canada and throughout the world, so that all God's people may share in the goods of this earth. God's kingdom will come only when all people are ready to let Christ's teaching guide and rule their lives and actions. - Ordo Liturgical Calendar 2023 - 2024

SAINT PAUL

Sunday after Sunday we listen to St Paul's epistles.

It is over two thousand years since the birth of St. Paul in Tarsus, in modern-day eastern Turkey. Paul, originally called Saul, was a Jew by race, yet also a Roman citizen (a comparatively rare privilege especially among the Jews). It was this dignity which eventually led to his being beheaded rather than crucified like Our Lord or St. Peter.

His persecution of the early Church, including the stoning of St. Stephen, and his dramatic conversion at the gates of Damascus, are well known.

We can study his wonderful Epistles, or letters to the Christian congregations (or in Paul's terminology, "Churches") which he had founded or visited, — or to young protégés like Timothy and Titus, whom he had trained up as successors in administering the sacraments, and in teaching and governing the infant Church.

These letters altogether make up the largest single body of documents in the New Testament and, together with the teachings of St. John the Apostle and Evangelist, are the most profound reflections on the person and work of Christ and of Christ's relation to His Body on earth, the Catholic Church.

~ FR. PAUL DOBSON
