SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

The season of Eastertide lasts for eight weeks, during which time we celebrate the resurrection, the appearances of the Risen Lord to the disciples, and His preparing them for His Ascension and for the Coming of the Holy Spirit. So today, the last Sunday before the Feast of the Ascension, Our Lord tells His disciples that He is about to leave the world to return to the Father.

But this does not mean that the disciples will be bereaved of His presence; He promises to send the Holy Spirit, who will lead Our Lord's followers into all truth, and who will make the risen Lord present in his Body, the Church. For it is only with the promised coming of the Holy Spirit that Christ's followers can be formed into a single body, that is, into the mystical Body of Christ.

Moreover, this same Holy Spirit will give the disciples a new understanding of the relationship between God the Father and God the Son, and thereby enable all Christ's followers to share in that relationship; in other words, to share the very life of the blessed Trinity.

Together with all the parish clergy and staff, I wish you and your loved ones every blessing this Paschaltide. ~ Fr. Paul Dobson

ANNOUNCEMENTS

POPE'S PASTORAL WORKS COLLECTION this Sunday May 25

This collection was established by the bishops of Canada in 1970. The Papal Charities allow the Pope to contribute to various charitable causes around the world, particularly toward aiding the victims of war, famine and natural disasters. The Pope's Pastoral Works displays Christ's love and compassion for people in desperate need. By contributing to this collection, the faithful of Canada give a universal dimension to their charity. Envelopes for this purpose are at the entrance of the church.

SHARELIFE 2025

Your helping hand can help others thrive.

Mental health challenges can impact anyone, whether you're personally navigating them or supporting someone who is. These struggles transcend age and circumstance. Brenda was weighed down by shame, having battled anxiety and depression for decades. Through your support, she found a new perspective at a Catholic Family Services agency funded by ShareLife, where counselling lifted her up and allowed her to see her own worth. Your compassion is instrumental in helping others see themselves as God sees them: loving, important, and enough. Thank you for living the Gospel by helping relieve the pain of those facing silent battles.

Please give at the parish using a ShareLife envelope, online through our parish website, or at sharelife.org/donate.
