FAITH

The Apostles ask Our Lord to “increase our faith!” His reply is “if you had faith the size of a mustard seed, you could tell a tree to uproot itself and be planted in the sea, and it would obey you!”.

Before asking ourselves what Our Lord means by this answer, we need to find out what the Apostles mean by their question. At first it may seem that they are asking for faith in God, i.e. belief in Him. But it is not so much belief in God that they want as trust in Him to help them to work miracles, as Our Lord’s words to them show us. It seems from Our Lord’s reply that the Apostles are eager to work miracles. If we cast our minds back to the beginning of chapter 10 in St. Luke’s Gospel, there were seventy-two disciples sent by Our Lord to preach in His name, who came back rejoicing that they had not only preached in His name, but had worked many miracles in His name. On that occasion Our Lord had warned them not to glory in miracles, but rather to “rejoice that their names were written in the Book of Life”.

~ Fr. Paul Dobson.

INDIGENOUS HEALING & RECONCILIATION FUND

Catholics throughout the Archdiocese of Toronto are invited to participate in the collection being held this weekend to support the Indigenous Healing & Reconciliation Fund. The collection is part of a national grassroots effort to assist healing and reconciliation with Indigenous Peoples of This Land.

To date, the Archdiocese of Toronto has allocated $3.1 million to support projects that focus on culture and language revitalization, education and community building, healing and reconciliation for communities and dialogue involving Indigenous elders, spiritual leaders and youth.

Let us join together and follow the invitation extended by the late Pope Francis during his penitential visit of 2022 for each one of us to become engaged in the healing and reconciliation journey. Donation envelopes can be found at both entrances.

Please Visit: www.archtoronto.org/healingandreconciliation for more information or to donate online. Thank you for your generosity.
