THE POPE'S CATHEDRAL CHURCH

Today's feast known generally as the "Dedication of the Lateran Basilica" recalls the Dedication of the Pope's Cathedral Church in Rome, or, to give it its full title, the Archbasilica of Our Saviour and Sts. John the Baptist and John the Evangelist. It is popularly known as "The Lateran Basilica" after the noble Roman family of the "Laterani" who gave the land to Pope St. Silvester, the first Pope to reign after the end of the great centuries of persecution. Here the Pope was at last able openly to establish his home and Cathedral Church. Because a consecrated Church building is a symbol of Christ, and of His Body, the Church built up of living stones, this feast can take the place of an Ordinary Sunday, as it does today.

In any diocese, the Cathedral is the Mother Church, because it is the place where the bishop celebrates the Liturgy and from which he directs the local Church placed under his care by Christ, the Good Shepherd. In the case of the Cathedral of Rome, how-ever, we are considering the Church from which the Bishop of Rome, the Pope, presides as Supreme Pastor over the entire Catholic world. The Lateran Basilica, the "Archbasilica of Our Saviour", is therefore a powerful sign of the unity of the Church on earth, focussed on the personal successor of Peter, the Prince of the Apostles, upon whom Christ established the foundation and governance of His Church.

~ Fr. Paul Dobson.

Red Wednesday – November 19

Show support and wear red on Red Wednesday.

The scale of Christian persecution today is staggering and calls for our urgent attention and fervent prayer. According to the most recent report from Aid to the Church in Need, grave violations of religious freedom occurred in 62 countries affecting nearly 5.4 billion people, or 64.7% of the world's population. These sobering realities underscore the threat to the faith in hostile environments, yet they also inspire us to hope, for as pilgrims of hope, we know that Christ's resurrection triumphs over every form of darkness and injustice.

On Wednesday, November 19, people around the world will mark Red Wednesday, an initiative of Aid to the Church in Need (ACN). This global day highlights the persecution of Christians and reminds us that religious freedom is a human right. In Toronto, the Archdiocese of Toronto invites the Catholic community to participate in Mass at 5:30 p.m. at St. Michael's Cathedral Basilica, where Bishop John Boissonneau, Auxiliary Bishop of Toronto will preside. By attending the Mass, wearing red, or organizing local activities, you stand in solidarity with those who suffer for their faith. More info: www.acn-canada.org/rw. Or scan the QR code.

Cybercrime Resolution for All Canadians & Education Session

The resolution to create a unified and centralized cybercrime reporting system for individuals in Canada, proposed by St. Joseph CWL Council, was successfully adopted at the 105th National Annual Meeting of Members. (www.cwl.ca/resolutions/2025). The National Council of The Catholic Women's League of Canada has officially urged the federal government to establish this system—an initiative that aligns with the Auditor General of Canada's Report Combating Cybercrime.

As we continue to advocate for the digital safety of all Canadians, we invite you to join us for an Education and Information Session to kick off our awareness efforts.

AROUND THE ARCH

SPIRITUS WEST TALK - The Hour of Our Death

Next ministry night for young adults ages 18-35 is at St. Jerome's Catholic Church in Brampton on November 19 starting with Mass at 7:00 pm - followed by a talk by Fr. Michael Corpus, of the Newman Centre. In this month of November, when the Church turns her gaze to the mystery of death and eternal life, you're invited to The Hour of Our Death. What really happens in the breath between time and eternity? Far from grim, this talk reveals how remembering our end can awaken our hearts to live with purpose, freedom, and peace.
