THE BEATITUDES

The Gospel this Fourth Sunday of the year presents us with the opening words of Our Lord's great Sermon on the Mount, the words we call the Beatitudes. In these well-known words our Saviour indicates to us the qualities that mark life in His Kingdom, the virtues which must adorn the citizens of God's country. It is the Gospel we hear often on the feast days of saints, and especially on the Feast of All Saints in November, as if to remind us that the Beatitudes draw a picture for us of what a saint must be like. It is a Gospel that teaches us what it is to be holy, what it is to seek to be holy, to seek to be a saint.

Of course, the Beatitudes also describe Our Lord Himself, and as Christ looks at us, His disciples, the Beatitudes are also the fruit which He seeks to bring forth from our lives. Pope Benedict XVI described it thus: "The Beatitudes express the meaning of discipleship.... what the Beatitudes mean cannot be expressed in purely theoretical terms; it is proclaimed in the life and suffering, and in the mysterious joy, of the disciple who gives himself over completely to following the Lord." That is what we are all called to do, that is what makes us holy, makes us saints – our ever-closer following of Our Lord. The Beatitudes show us that power, wealth, earthly success, pride, self-satisfaction, egotism, are not the recipe for true happiness.

As Mother Teresa of Calcutta taught, this lies in surrender of self, in the acceptance of God's will, and in the joyful realization that it is these things which matter above all else.

~ Fr. Paul Dobson

FROM MESSAGE FOR WORLD DAY FOR CONSECRATED LIFE FEB 2

On this World Day of Consecrated Life, the Archdiocese of Toronto, and I personally, thank you most sincerely. We are grateful for your faithfulness, prayerfulness, and sacrifices known only to God. For all the spiritual and temporal works of mercy you accomplish, for your spirit of welcoming and generosity, for your willingness to go the extra mile and radiate the face of Christ to our polarized, frustrated and anxious world, for the love you bring to those who suffer and have no one to turn to – our gratitude is immense. I entrust you anew to the intercession of the Blessed ever Virgin Mary and Saint Joseph, her most chaste spouse. May Christ, the Light whom you have chosen above all things, continue to illuminate you personally and your communities, renew your joy, and draw many hearts closer to Him through your loving witness.

..... Your vocation places you at the heart of the Church's mystery (cf. CCC, 916, 932). By your profession of the evangelical counsels, you proclaim that God alone is sufficient, that the Kingdom of Heaven is already present and growing among us, and that the ultimate horizon of human life is communion with God (cf. LG, 44). In a world often marked by division, relentless busyness, perpetual dissatisfaction, and unbridled self-assertion, your consecration speaks a different language: one of radical availability, obedience and humble service, prophetic witnessing, and true joy found in simplicity of life – modeled after that of Our Lord and Our Lady. Consecrated life is not a retreat from the world, but a prophetic way of loving the world as God loves it, and in so doing inviting others to a more authentic way of life (cf. Vita Consecrata, 80, 109). ~ His Eminence Frank Cardinal Leo

MINISTRIES

HORIZONS OF HOPE

Curious about palliative care and Church teaching about the end of life? We invite you to participate in a 4-part series called Horizons of Hope, on Thursday evenings 7 - 9 p.m. on February 5, 12, 19 & 26. Our faith has much to teach us about living well until the end of life. The program, developed by the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops, will help parishioners, families and care givers learn more through videos and small-group discussion. Themes include: understanding the dying process, discernment and decision making at the end of life, accompaniment and the importance of building compassionate communities. It is our hope that the program will empower parishioners to accompany loved ones and community members who are suffering. Please Register with the QR code. ➔
