PARISH MISSION – March 9th 7:00 PM

Topic: Speak Lord, Your Servant is Listening –
 Learning to Hear God's Voice on Life's Journey.
 With Fr. Giuseppe Scollo, Assistant Professor of Biblical Theology at St. Augustine seminary

THE SERMON ON THE MOUNT II—
 SALT OF THE EARTH AND LIGHT OF THE WORLD

Our Lord today continues the teaching begun last week in the “beatitudes” with a direct address to his audience: “YOU are the salt of the earth—YOU are the light of the world”. He does not mean that we should wish to draw attention to ourselves in order to be noticed. But nor does He mean that we should “hide our light under a bushel”, to quote another of His sayings. As Our Lord’s followers, we must be ready to do all in our power to make Him and His teaching known to those who do not know it, or have only a distorted idea of it.

This is very demanding in a cynical world that believes that Christianity is a spent force. How hard it is to speak up for Christ’s teaching when it has been rejected by our society! It is a daunting prospect. But it is not one we can shun. We still have a duty to make Christ known. St John Henry Newman wrote a wonderful short meditation about this very task—how to think about it, how to approach it and how actually to do it:

“Stay with me, [Lord], and then I shall begin to shine as Thou shinest: so to shine as to be a light to others. The light, O Jesus, will be all from Thee. None of it will be mine. No merit to me. It will be Thou who shinest through me upon others. O let me thus praise Thee, in the way which Thou dost love best, by shining on all those around me. Give light to them as well as to me; light them with me, through me. Teach me to show forth Thy praise, Thy truth, Thy will. Make me preach Thee without preaching—not by words, but by my example and by the catching force, the sympathetic influence, of what I do—by my visible resemblance to Thy saints, and the evident fulness of the love which my heart bears to Thee.”

In other words, it is easier to do this than we might have thought, so long as we keep constantly in our minds that we are not making ourselves and our own ideas known, but we must make known to others Christ and His teaching. We must be Christ-bearers—images of Him, formed by the Sacraments which are His gift.

~ Fr. Paul Dobson

FROM MESSAGE OF POPE LEO XIV

FOR THE 34TH WORLD DAY OF THE SICK - 11 FEBRUARY 2026

Dear brothers and sisters, the thirty-fourth World Day of the Sick will be solemnly celebrated in Chiclayo, Peru, on 11 February 2026. For this occasion, I would recommend reflecting once again on the figure of the Good Samaritan, for he is always relevant and essential for rediscovering the beauty of charity and the social dimension of compassion. This reflection further directs our attention towards the needy and all those who suffer, especially the sick.

..... “the true remedy for humanity’s wounds is a style of life based on fraternal love, which has its root in love of God.” I genuinely hope that our Christian lifestyle will always reflect this fraternal, “Samaritan” spirit – one that is welcoming, courageous, committed and supportive, rooted in our union with God and our faith in Jesus Christ. Enkindled by this divine love, we will surely be able to give of ourselves for the good of all who suffer, especially our brothers and sisters who are sick, elderly or afflicted.

HORIZONS OF HOPE

Curious about palliative care and Church teaching about the end of life? We invite you to participate in a 4-part series called Horizons of Hope, on Thursday evenings 7 - 9 p.m. on February 5, 12, 19 & 26. Our faith has much to teach us about living well until the end of life. The program, developed by the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops, will help parishioners, families and care givers learn more through videos and small-group discussion. Themes include: understanding the dying process, discernment and decision making at the end of life, accompaniment and the importance of building compassionate communities. It is our hope that the program will empower parishioners to accompany loved ones and community members who are suffering. Please Register with the QR code. ➔
