THE TRANSFIGURATION

Christ is the Lord of glory as we hear in today's Gospel of the Transfiguration.

At first sight it seems strange to hear this account in Lent, the season of austerity, and preparation for Holy Week. Yet we must understand that it is an event which takes place on the way up to Jerusalem, and that it clearly looks forward to all that will happen to Our Lord there. We are told that our Lord appeared to be shining with a brilliant light, like the sun. St. Peter, who witnesses this wonderful event, is overcome with awe, and does not know what to say, yet he finds himself saying, "Lord it is good for us to be here!" He wants to remain in this state of ecstasy, and continue to enjoy it, by offering to put up three tents for Our Lord, and for Moses and Elijah.

Though struck with fear, the Apostles recognise that their Master is being revealed to them as no ordinary man, but as God Who has become man, and has usually kept veiled, but not lost, His glory. But the greatest words of this revelation are truly extraordinary. For it is only the second occasion in the Gospels that the voice of God the Father is heard, pointing out "My Son, the Chosen One." Christ, therefore, is shown to be beyond doubt the Son of God in a unique way. But He is also pointed out as our Teacher when God's voice continues: "Listen to Him!"

Finally, after the end of this brilliant glory, Our Lord Himself speaks to the three Apostles about it, saying, 'Tell no one about the vision until the Son of Man has risen from the dead.' This vision has been for them alone to know about, until after His resurrection. Then they will be able to understand it and preach it as showing that Christ is God before, and even in, His death on the cross.

~ Fr. Paul Dobson.

LENTEN MESSAGE 2026

HIS EMINENCE FRANK CARDINAL LEO

My Dear Brothers and Sisters, May Jesus and Mary be in your hearts.
Paragraphs 5 & 6

... Traditional Lenten practices take on deeper meaning when seen through the lens of our communion with God and one another (cf. CCC, 1434-1435). How? Prayer opens our hearts to God who unites us to him and to others, as Jesus himself prays that all may be one in the communion he shares with the Father (cf. Jn 17:20-23; CCC, 2564). Fasting teaches us to make room for God and for one another by reordering our priorities, and restoring justice and communion (cf. Is 58:6-7; Joel 2:12-13; St. Basil the Great, Homily on Fasting, 1). Almsgiving is a concrete act of solidarity, a recognition that my life is bound to the life of my neighbour, and my love cannot remain abstract but must be expressed in deeds (cf. 1 Jn 3:16-18; CCC, 2447). (cf. CCC, 1440; 2 Cor 5:18-20).

The road to Jerusalem that Jesus walks is not a path done in isolation; he gathers disciples, eats with sinners, heals the broken, and calls the lost by name as He sets His face toward Calvary (Lk 9:51-19:27). Even as Jesus carried his cross, was crucified, and breathed his last, he remained focused on others and the mission entrusted to him by the Father (Mk 15:21, Lk 23:27-31; Mt 27:46-50, Lk 23:44-46; cf. Lk 2:35). To follow Jesus is to allow our own journey of repentance to become a journey of renewed communion (Lk 24:13-35; CCC, 781).
